

PROBATE FEES

Probate is charged at a current hourly rate of £275.00 plus VAT and will be carried out by a probate solicitor partner of the firm.

We anticipate a costs estimate of between £3,500.00 and £5,000.00 plus VAT for an average estate. The actual amount charged will however depend on the circumstances of the estate, and the extent of the work required to be carried out. The fees may be higher or lower depending on the time spent.

Please arrange to speak with us so that we can provide a more accurate idea of the likely costs. It may be that we can assist with parts of the estate whilst you deal with other aspects yourself.

We will also charge a mark up on the value of the estate as follows:

- 1.25% plus VAT of the gross value of the Estate where a solicitor of this Firm IS an Executor appointed by the Will;
- 0.75% plus VAT of the gross value of the Estate (excluding the value of any property) where a solicitor of this Firm is NOT an Executor appointed the Will; and
- 0.5% plus VAT of the value of any property where any house is involved as part of the Estate.

The exact cost of the mark up will depend on the individual circumstances of the matter and may be less than quoted.

Additional fees

Bank Transfer per transfer - £35.00 plus VAT

AML ID check per check - £25.00 plus VAT

Special delivery per delivery - £20.00 plus VAT

The sale of a property is not included in the probate fees and will be agreed at a separate fixed fee.

Timescales

On average estate administration takes approximately 12 months, although depending on the complexity it can take less or more time.

The Probate Registry currently takes up to 16 weeks to process an application for Grant of Probate, and longer for an application for Letters of Administration.

Administration of the estate can begin once the Grant/Letters has been issued by the Probate Registry and the tax liability of the administration period can be assessed.

Please note we will not make payments to beneficiaries overseas unless a Partner of our firm is appointed an Executor.
